1. INTRODUCTION

- a.) The Architectural Guide ("the Guide") is constituted under the Constitution of the Mount Royal Home Owners Association. The intention of the Guide is to ensure architectural coherence in the built fabric of the proposed Mount Royal Golf & Country Estate. The principle objectives of this coherence in architectural language, building materials and colours is to ensure that all buildings contribute to the value of each individual homeowner's investment on the one hand, and to mitigate the visual impact of the development as a whole on the other.
- b.) This Guide is applicable to all single residential, group housing and general residential properties. Commercial properties will be subject to the town planning scheme regulations of the local authority and subject to the pre-scrutiny and written approval of the Estate Management (EM).
- c.) No building or structure shall be erected without the approval of the Mount Royal Estate Management, its Architectural Review Committee (ARC - internal approval), and the local authority (Swartland Municipality).
- d.) The Estate Management together with the Home Owners Association shall from time to time appoint the Architectural Review Committee, which shall be overseen by a qualified architect who shall be known as the Principal Reviewing Architect (PRA). The Estate Management may at its sole discretion appoint from time to time a Supplementary Reviewing Architect (SRA).
- e.) In addition to the PRA in 1.d) above, the services of BBC Services (Boland Building Control Services) has been contracted to assist in ensuring that guidelines and plans are being adhered to.
- f.) In the event of the PRA being commissioned as design architect for any of the specific developments, the Estate Management (EM) will assess the PRA's design proposals. The EM may at their sole discretion appoint an SRA to assist it in such an event.
- g.) In questions of interpretation of the Guide or in the event of matters arising from the design process, which are not addressed by the Guide, the reviewing architect (PRA or SRA) shall make a binding ruling. Minor variations that are deemed to be in the interest of the Estate and compatible with the Guide may be considered by the Estate Management from time to time.
- h.) All building plans are to be prepared and submitted by suitable qualified designers or firms which are registered with the South African Council for the Architectural Profession (SACAP).
